BY PARTICIPATING IN THE L-P STUDENT COUNCIL

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT CLUB HANDLES ELECTIONS

Mr. Sam McCartney, adviser of the American Government Club, lectures to his government classes on the federal court system. All members of these classes are also members of the American Government Club.

Sandra Brovelli, secretary-treasurer, and Richard Hauser, president, plan ways of earning money for the club's annual trip to Chicago.

The most effective method of learning government is participating in it. Each year the American Government Club handles all important school elections. Here several members distribute ballots to voters in the Student Council election.

Representative Noah Mason took time out from his busy schedule to talk to the government students. Here Peg Faletti, Vic Gostomski, Clarence Dingerson, Buddy DiCrispino, Richard Hauser, and Barbara Miglia stay after class to ask a few questions.

Jerry Falk, Buddy DiCrispino, JoAnne Dutkiewicz, Suzanne Ream, and Lou Danz check names as students vote.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM GETS A RUNNING START

NURSES CLUB AIDS STUDENTS IN PLANNING CAREERS

For the third consecutive year Miss Patricia Travers, school nurse sponsors the Nurses Club.

Officers plan and conduct meetings: (standing) Carol Bianchi, program chairman; Pat Koskosky, secretary-treasurer; Pat Foley, vice-president; Karol Kudla, social chairman; (seated) Martha Bansberg, president.

Club members discuss their future nursing plans: (back row) Darlene Venturelli, Carolee Campeggio, Holly Morrow; (front row) Carol Vogel, Bonnie Fielhauer, and Rosalie Pretto.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS HAVE WIDE RANGE OF INTERESTS

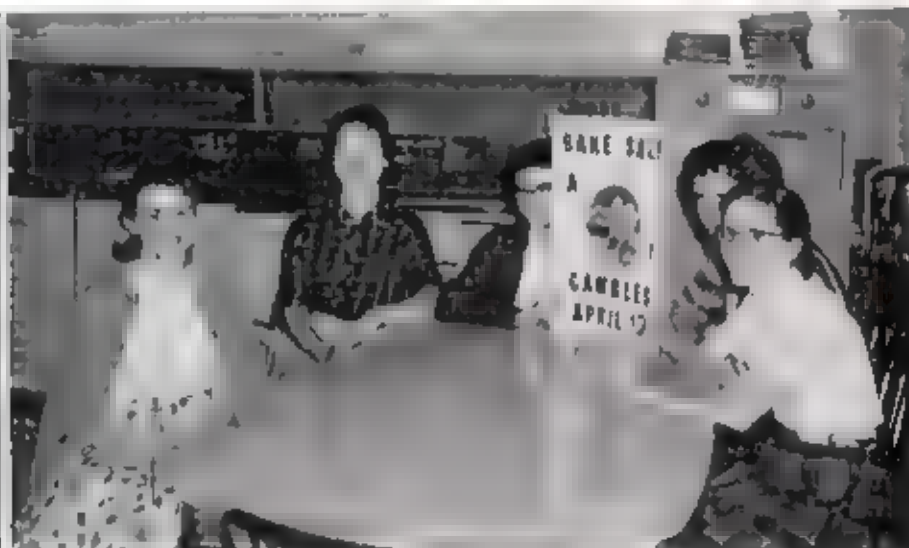

One of the many homemaking skills learned in F. H. A. is sewing. Officers (standing) Ruth Coric, secretary; Lois Volk, treasurer; Margie Ernat, degrees chairman; Joanne Volk, vice-president; Rose Corrigan, program chairman; (sitting) June Welsh, historian, and Joann Zupancic, parliamentarian, watch as Janet Pottinger, president, demonstrates how to cut a pattern.

Mrs. Margaret Herrmann and Miss Colette Baranowski, F. H. A. advisers, and Mrs. Sidney Pottinger and Mrs. William Coric, chapter mothers, admire the emblem of the Future Homemakers of America.

Seated around the table, F. H. A. members Lucy Alonso, Marie Naczewski, Darlene Kotecki, Roseann Crowley, Gayle Hoffman, Rose Corrigan, and Ruth Znaniecki make plans for the annual Mother-Daughter banquet.

During April the group held a bake sale at Gambles Store in La Salle. Here Joann Zupancic, Holly Morrow, Judy Farnetti, Betty Soeder, and June Welsh display one of the posters advertising their sale.

The F. H. A. District Convention was held at L-P this year. Helping to decorate the auditorium are Rose Corrigan, Mary Barbara Cass, JoAnn Plochocki, and Sarah Bice.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA STUDY FARMING AND

Mr. Don Wiechman advises the Future Farmers of America. This is Mr. Wiechman's first year at L-P; he teaches all of the agriculture classes.

Officers of the F. F. A.: Don Magee, vice-president; Ron Petersen, treasurer; Ron Samolitis, sentinel, and Larry Mills, president; examine the equipment as Chuck Lavens, reporter; and Jim Ernat, secretary, demonstrate a few welding techniques.

A sheep feeder is the product of George Thompson's handiwork in the farm shop.

LEARN TO OPERATE AND SERVICE FARM MACHINERY

Don Magee assembles the tractor in the L-P shop after a complete over-haul job has been done.

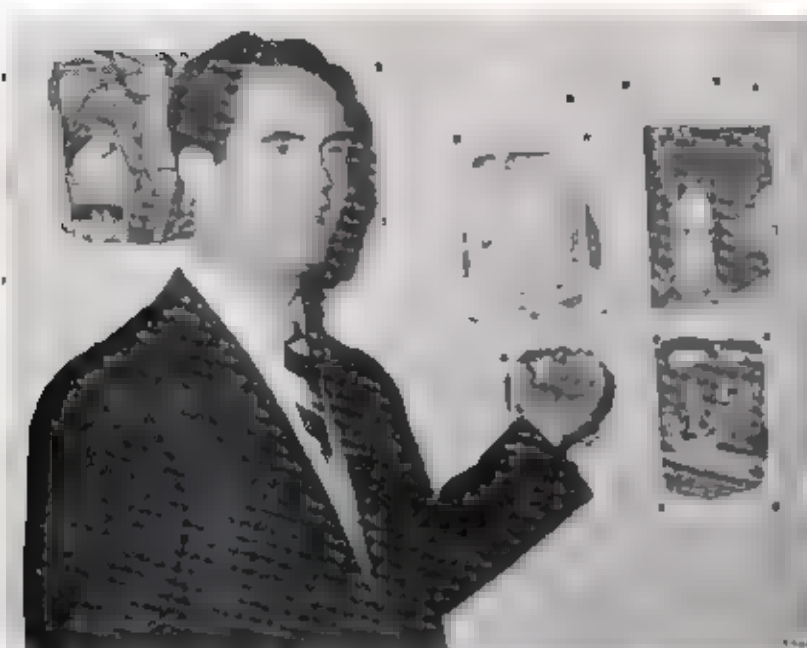

A dairy project is owned and controlled by Clarence Wenzel on his father's farm.

OCTOBER . . PEP CLUB IN FULL SWING . . CHEER TEAM

Mr. Ray Broley sponsors the Pep Club.

Pep Club officers attempt to promote school spirit and sportsmanlike conduct at football games: (standing) Gretchen Schmoeger, vice-president; Karol Kudla, secretary; Rae Zukowski, treasurer; (seated) Donna Weiden, president.

During the half of the football games, members of the Pep Club warm up with hot chocolate at the concession stand: Rosalie Pretto, Carol Bianchi, Darlene Venturelli, Nancy Mazzorana, Judy McManus, Mary Alice Carter, Jeri Wenzel, and Kathy McInerney.

AND COACHES WORK TOWARD SUCCESSFUL SEASONS.

Howard Fellows, and Coaches Jim Valek, and Harold Patterson look forward to victorious seasons.

1958 is Mr. Howard Fellows' forty-fifth year at L-P and in honor of this occasion the football stadium was named "Howard Fellows Stadium", as Athletic Director Mr. Howard Fellows is the nucleus of all sports activities.

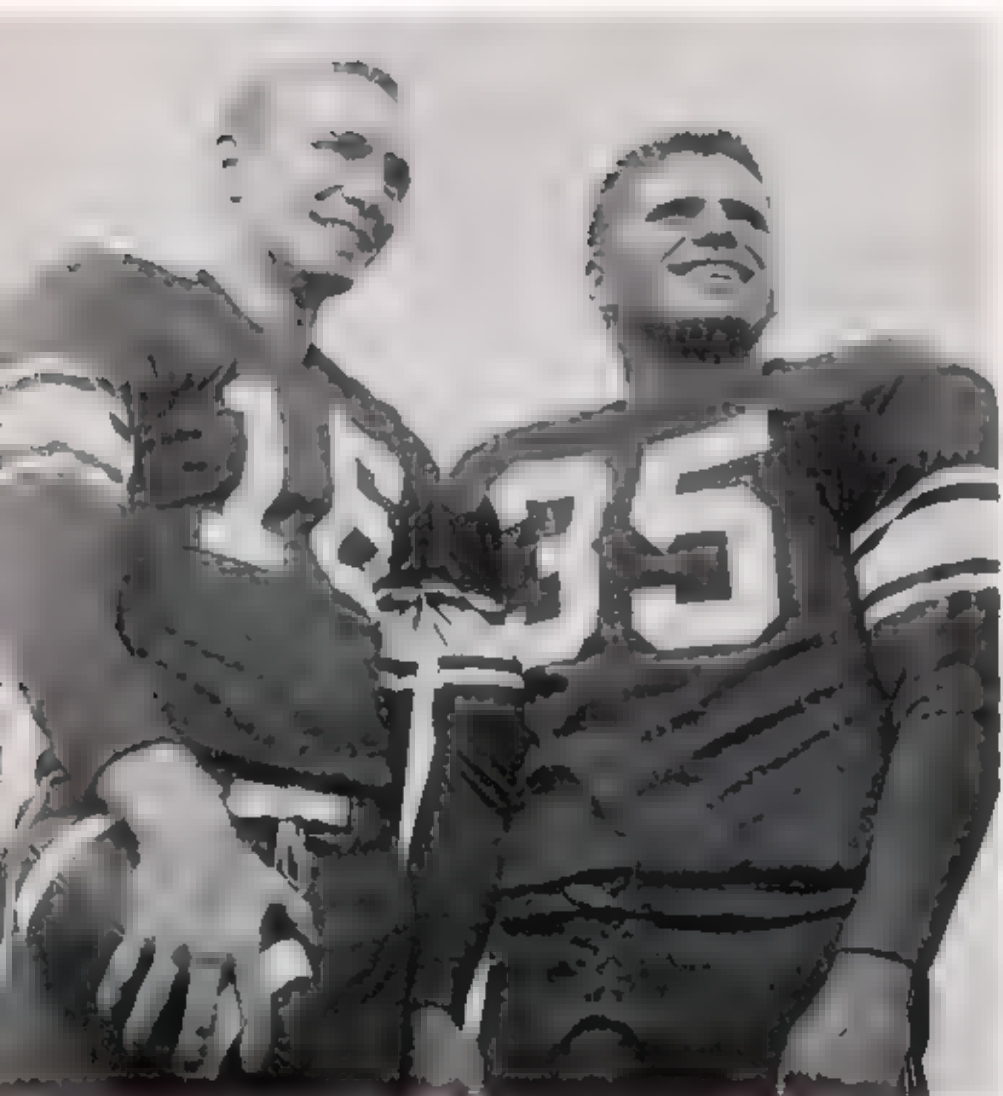

Among his many duties are the scheduling, arranging, and supervising of all meets and games. His knowledge of mathematics is a tremendous help in balancing the Athletic Department's budget.

VARSITY TEAM RECORD — FIVE WINS, TWO LOSSES

Skillful tackling by L-P brings the Freeport ball carrier down.

After winning the Freeport game the players were congratulated by their teammates.

Glenn Glauser races down the field for his second touchdown against West Aurora.

Two powerhouses who led the L-P team to second place in the Big Eight, Jerry Dittle and Don Tregoning, were placed on the Big Eight team.

Mr. Charles Korn is responsible for announcing the end of quarters and the end of the game by discharging his gun.

To treat Gerrard Pearson's knee Trainer Les Hoescheid first applies menthol lubricant and then uses the ultra-sound machine.

William Schultz and John Bordenave punch the season's passes of Mary Ann Harvey, JoAnne Bukovic, and Barbara Rancingay.

Ticket Takers Ray Brolley, Wes Stace, and Don Schutte admit three St. Bede students, Lyle Micheli, Mickey Daniels, and Wayne Jaraczewski, to an L-P football game.

FOOTBALL BANQUET FOR TEAMS CLIMAXES '57 SEASON

The Incas, Cavaliers, Cavalettes, senior band members and cheerleaders climax a hard season at the annual football banquet.

Football managers: Don Magee, Joe Marinangeli, Clarence Dingson, Jerry Swanson, and William Zibert, relive some of their exciting side-line moments.

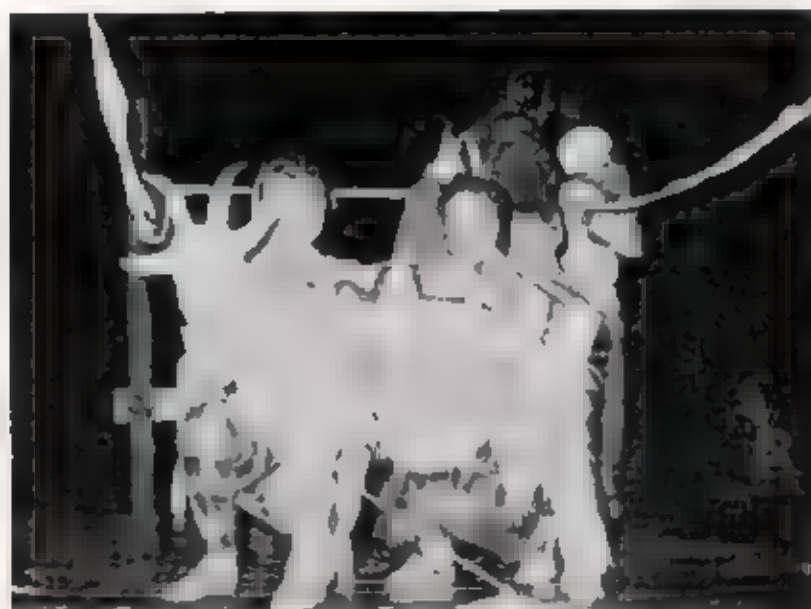

COLORFUL FLOATS APPEAR IN L-P'S LARGEST PARADE

For the third successive year Miss Mary Stevens' homeroom 212, wins first place in the homecoming float contest. This year's theme is "Sweet Smell of Success."

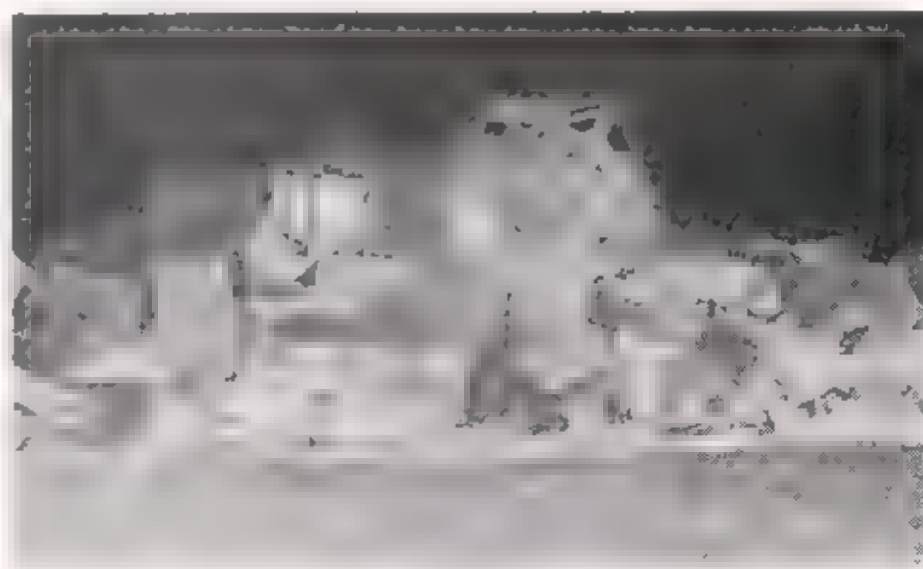

Don Pohar and Joanne Wagner represent the West Rockford Warriors whom homeroom 303 predicts L-P will enslave. Mrs. Margaret Herrmann's homeroom takes second place.

Mary Ellen Liss and Judy Lipka, members of Miss Juliana Gerrits' homeroom 219, have West Rockford's goat and third place.

The Student Council gathers boxes, crates, and assorted debris for the huge bonfire which furnishes atmosphere at the Pep Rally following the Homecoming Parade.

SANDY'S CROWNING HIGHLIGHTS HOMECOMING DANCE

A hush falls over the stadium as the two cars with the Junior and Senior Attendants and the yet unknown queen drive upon the football field. But the silence turns to cheers when the 1956 Homecoming Queen, Sharon Richards announces 1957's Homecoming Queen, Sandy Brovelli. The Senior Attendants, Diane Schroeder, Linda Harl, and Mary Ann Wertz look on as Sharon gives Sandy her bouquet of roses.

Junior Attendants, Carol Bianchi, Carol Costa, and Marlene Nico, are happy and excited as they ride around the football field.

AND THE EVER-POPULAR SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

Corsage contest winners: Kathe Tonquest, Dick Cook, Evelyn Pelszynski, Gerard Pearson, Sue Ream, and Jerry Falk display their prize-winning creations.

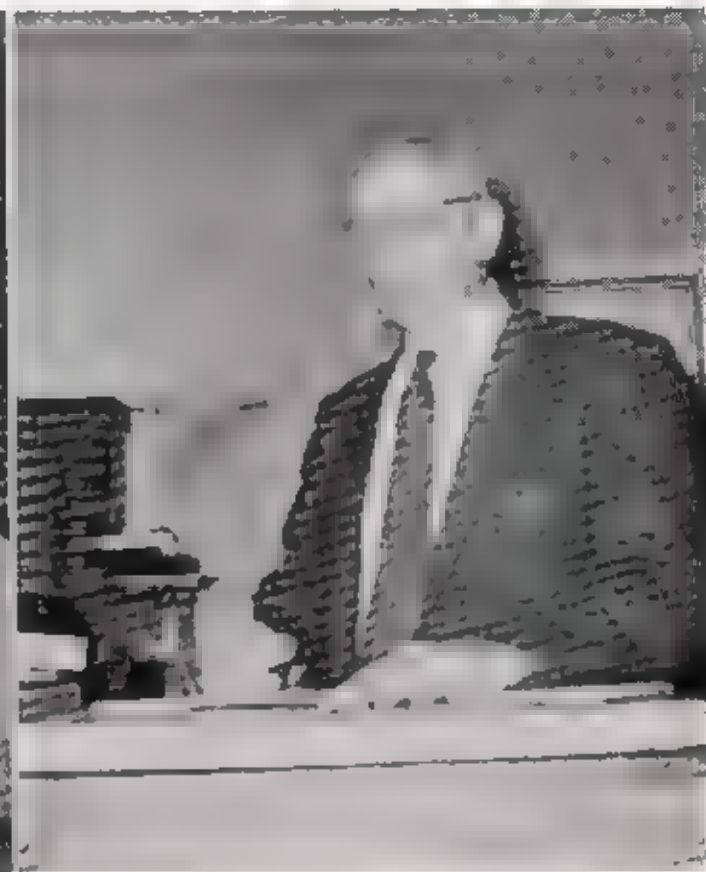

"You may now kiss the bride," says clergyman Curtis Smith to Rosalie Pretto and Don Andrews after the wedding ceremony at the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

TIME MARCHES ON SLOWLY FOR THE SOPHOMORES WHO

Mr. Charles Korn, sophomore class adviser, lends able assistance to all sophomores, helping them with their academic programs and guiding them in social functions.

NEW DRAMA CLUB ATTRACTS MANY L-P ACTORS

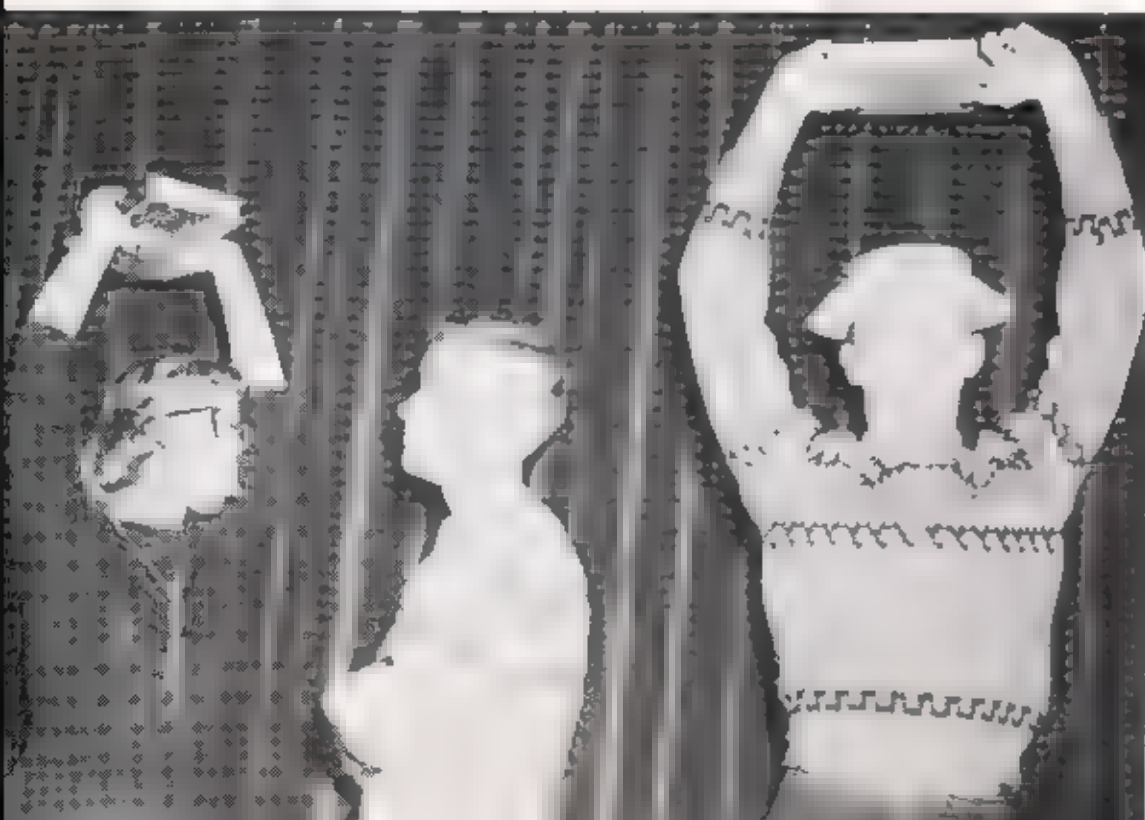

Drama Club officers: Marcia Woltmann, president; Dave Metz, treasurer; Jerry Swanson, vice-president; and Sue Seymour, secretary apply their make-up before a performance.

Mr. Hal Kesler, adviser of the Drama Club, is a member of the English faculty and new at L-P this year.

Becky Bly, Jerry Swanson, and Pat Krolak rehearse a scene from "The Decision on Ramey Scott," the Drama Club's first play.

SPANISH CLUB COMBINES PLAY WITH THEIR WORK.

The Spanish Club officers get together to make preparations for the annual Christmas festival: (back row) Judie Znaniecki, Sandy Vogel, social chairman; Sandy Fofe, program chairman; Jeanne Reese, treasurer; (front row) Arleen Wysgowski, president; and Gary Sudano, vice-president.

Mr. Earl Trobaugh, sponsor, lectures at a meeting about life in Mexico.

Members and their guests look on at the Christmas party as James Nealand is being blind-folded before attempting to break the traditional pinata.

STUDENT COUNCIL'S ACTIVITIES ARE YEAR 'ROUND

Joanne Dutkiewicz, winner of the Student Council sponsored contest, received a gift certificate from Kathy McInerney. Joanne was the fiftieth person to say "Go, L-P, go" to Kathy McInerney, who was chosen secretly by the Student Council.

Student Council members Bob Prohs, Sharon White, and Bob Grisolano help pack clothes for the Thanksgiving Drive.

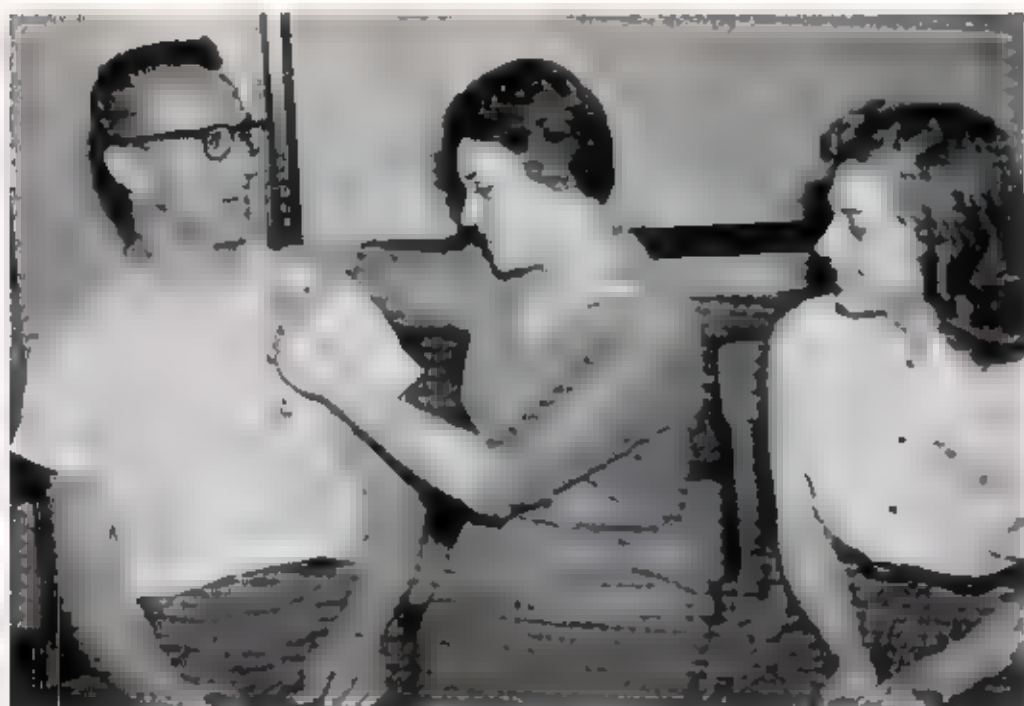

Charles Beltramini, custodian, sweeps up the money from the coin toss held during a basketball game for the benefit of March of Dimes and sponsored by the Student Council.

QUILL AND SCROLL AT L-P HAS INTERESTING HISTORY

L-P was one of the first schools to become affiliated with Quill and Scroll, organized to reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields; however, the L-P chapter was not continuous through the years. In 1951, the L-P chapter was re-established and became an active organization.

Mrs. Dorothe Kostellic, seated here with Quill and Scroll member Marion Dane (L-P-O) has sponsored Quill and Scroll since its revival eight years ago. Marion has been editor of the Ell Ess Pe and the L-P-O yearbook, the Jaycee.

Jim Libiez, Vivian Volk and Janet Pottinger were accepted into membership last spring. Here, Vivian helps Jim put on his pin.

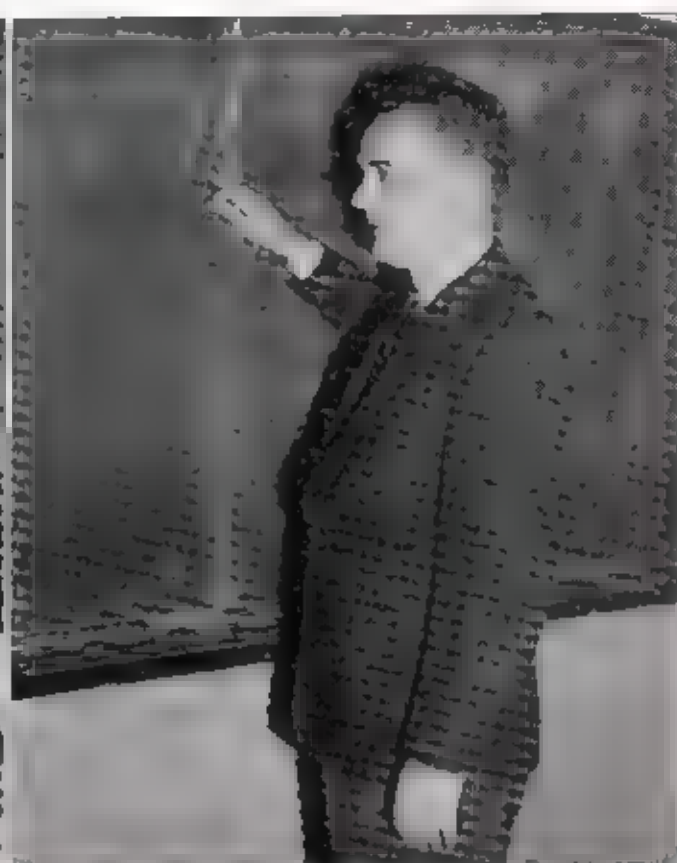

This year five seniors qualified for membership: Roseann Lipka, Irene Kruswicki, Curtis Smith, Joyce Szott, and Shirlee Swietek. With the addition of these five, the total membership in the L-P organization is thirty-five.

SOPHOMORES ORGANIZE NEW MATH CLUB THIS YEAR

Dale Lamps, vice-president; Mary Beth Boyle, secretary-treasurer; and Gary Sudano, social chairman discuss the charter of the new Sophomore Math Club with Joann Bukovic, president.

This year the need arose for a new math club. Mr. Carl Gabriel was selected adviser of this club, which deals exclusively with sophomore students and their problems in geometry.

UPPERCLASSMEN DEAL WITH COMPLICATED PROBLEMS.

Nancy Gostomski, social chairman; Marion Valle, vice-president; Bill Nico, president; Gretchen Utz, secretary-treasurer; and Peg Falletti, program chairman have learned the advantages of using the slide rule.

Mr. Donald Herrick has been Math Club adviser at L-P for three years. This year he is adviser of the Advanced Club.

JANUARY-TERM-PAPER TIME MEANS A CROWDED LIBRARY

The library assistants have the responsibility of much of the routine desk work. These students, who give one period of each day to this service, are indispensable members of the library staff. Library assistants, this year representing each of the four high school classes, are (back row) Richard Hess, Joan Piercy, Sally West, Elizabeth Stuppy, Cynthia Seaton, Peter Magnoni; (front row) Dorothy Gealow, Patricia Koskosky, Mary Kay Grove, Sandra Guziec, Emmy Lou Peters, and Patricia Foley.

The Library, which is located at the center of the building, is dedicated to the memory of Dr. T. J. McCormack, superintendent of the high school from 1903 until his death in 1932. The main reading room accommodates 180 readers. L-P students have access to a book collection of more than 19,000 volumes.

Among the library's art treasures is a medieval antiphonary. Colleen Brady and Jo Anne Sobkowiak admire the beautiful illuminated manuscript.

WITH THOUSANDS OF SOURCES AT STUDENTS' DISPOSAL

Robert Peradotti, Janice Lee Fahler, and Madeline Bravasse consult the Reader's Guide for periodical materials to be used in the preparation of an English assignment. L-P students find in the library an outstanding reference collection which is supplemented constantly by new acquisitions.

The vertical file is a source of information on many subjects. Thousands of pamphlets received annually are placed in the vertical file where L-P students have easy access to them. Marius Derango and Eugene Galassi find that the file has an excellent collection of vocational materials.

Joan Piercy, a senior, charges books to Shirlee Swietek and James Argubright. Joan has been a library assistant since she was a sophomore; her award for three years of service is a gold "Library Assistant" pin.

IN MEMORIAM

DR. JOHN L. ROCK
May 25, 1890 — March 18, 1958

Dr. John L. Rock was an outstanding civic leader, businessman, a sports enthusiast, and a booster of L-P

The students, faculty, and members of the Board of Education of the La Salle-Peru Township High School and La Salle-Peru-Oglesby Junior College have lost a loyal and sympathetic friend.

He served on the La Salle-Peru Township High School Board of Education for twelve years (1944-1956); he was president of the board from 1946 to 1953.

He also served as team physician and sat on the bench at football games at home and away. His services to the school were entirely without charge. Any athlete in need of medical aid or assistance was ministered to on a voluntary basis. This spirit was typical of Dr. Rock's devotion to his profession and his genuine interest in youth.

His intense loyalty to the school, his willingness to devote professional services on a voluntary basis, and his zealous and untiring efforts to the youth of the community are fully and gratefully recognized.

His work is done. May he rest in peace!

Members of the Board of Education are elected to office for a term of three years by the voters of District 120. Into the hands of this competent group are placed the affairs of La Salle-Peru Township High School and La Salle-Peru-Oglesby Junior College.

The Board meets on the second Wednesday of the month with Superintendent Dolan to perform such tasks as hiring of teachers, approving salaries and bills and supervising the improvement of the campus.

WITH ADMINISTRATION TOWARD SMOOTH OPERATION

Dr. Francis Dolan has been superintendent of La Salle-Peru Township High School for the past eleven years. He is always striving for improvement in the school and endeavors to make available to the students every opportunity for a well-rounded education.

His forward-looking administration exemplifies the spirit that has helped L-P grow to its present high status.

AND IMPROVEMENT OF L-P AND L-P-O EDUCATIONAL UNITS.

Mr. Harry L. Wilmot, Dean of La Salle-Peru-Oglesby Junior College, is registrar of the high school and junior college. He is Director of Guidance and Placement and is in charge of the testing program for both the high school and junior college.

His interest in youth is genuine, as is evidenced by the fact that he has been associated with preliminary classification and testing of pre-high-school students and orientation for the past 33 years.

Mr. Earl Trobaugh strives to acquaint the seniors with college life through the orientation classes held during the second semester every Friday morning in the auditorium. Pictured with Mr. Trobaugh are Patti Fransen and Bob Prohs.

TO HELP SOLVE THEIR PROBLEMS, STUDENTS SEEK ADVICE

Miss Leta Marsh, junior class adviser, not only helps students with their classification problems but assists them in planning their social activities — tea and prom. Pictured with Miss Marsh are Rose Marie Budziak and Bonnie Hubbard.

The job of convincing sophomores that it is profitable to take a college prep course is handled wisely by Mr. Charles Korn, sophomore class adviser, pictured here with Dennis Alteri and John Pearson.

Miss Mary Evers, freshman class adviser, is kept busy with the constant questions of the students in her charge. Among the freshmen this year are Glenn Hess and Marion Novero.

FROM HELPFUL CLASS ADVISERS, DEANS AND DIRECTORS.

Mr. Walt Tyler, in addition to serving as Dean of Boys, teaches history, is the frosh-soph football coach, baseball coach and co-adviser of the Student Council.

Miss Irene Page, health education teacher, is co-adviser of the Student Council with Mr. Tyler and Dean of Girls for the high school and junior college.

Mr. Howard Fellows has served as L-P's Athletic Director since 1928. His teaching assignment is in the mathematics department. He represents the La Salle-Peru Township High School at all athletic events; he is the coordinator of sports activities.

EVENING CLASSES AND OFFICE RECORDS AS WELL AS

Mr. John Carson, commerce instructor, is Supervisor of Rental Textbooks and in charge of ordering and distributing all textbooks for the high school.

Mr. Norman Peterson as Vocational Director is in charge of apprenticeship training classes and the adult evening school.

L-P's office work is handled by Pauline Maggi, attendance clerk; Elsie Frank, bookkeeper; Mrs. Frances Mattiazza, cashier; and Emily Yelich, record clerk.

FACULTY SOCIALS ARE PART OF THE L-P PROGRAM.

Old and new teachers get together early in the fall to discuss the problems that have arisen in their classrooms. At the monthly faculty coffee hour, Mrs. May Carlson pours for Mr. William Uebel, Mr. Lee Petersen, Mr. Leslie Rabe, Mr. Harold Patterson and Mr. Donald Schutte. Seated in the back are, Mr. John Bordenave, Mr. Hal Kesler and Mr. Carl M. Gabriel.

Many peculiar objects are found in the Jarrow household. The housekeeper (Marie Butler) shows Reverend and Mr. Jarrow a saw which she found under the cushion of the divan.

Irene Kruswicki, Dave Metz, and Karen Johnson of the Ell Ess Pe Staff were in charge of advertising for the play.

CAVALCURRENTS REPORTS ALL HAPPENINGS AT L-P.

Jeannie Hill, the first editor of Cavalcurrents, strives to make the school page in the local Daily News-Tribune a success.

Mr. Robert Hays of the L-P English department devotes much time to the supervision of Cavalcurrents.

writers) Jim Selfett, Bob Auler; (seated around the table) Diane Schroeder, Gretchen Utz, Rae Zukowski, Donna Weiden, and Neida Whaley.

STUDENTS ENJOY THE MANY VARIED ASSEMBLIES THAT

Frosh-soph cheerleaders Mary Beth Boyle, Edna Kimber, Sarah LaFlamme, Carol Niedzwiecki, and Mary Ann May lead the students in a modern bop cheer during a pep assembly.

After a fascinating assembly program, Mr. William Peters, faculty chairman of the Assemblies Committee, discusses more thoroughly the "Romance of Words" with Dr. Rowland Myers, the assembly speaker.

ARE BOTH INFORMATIVE AND VERY ENTERTAINING

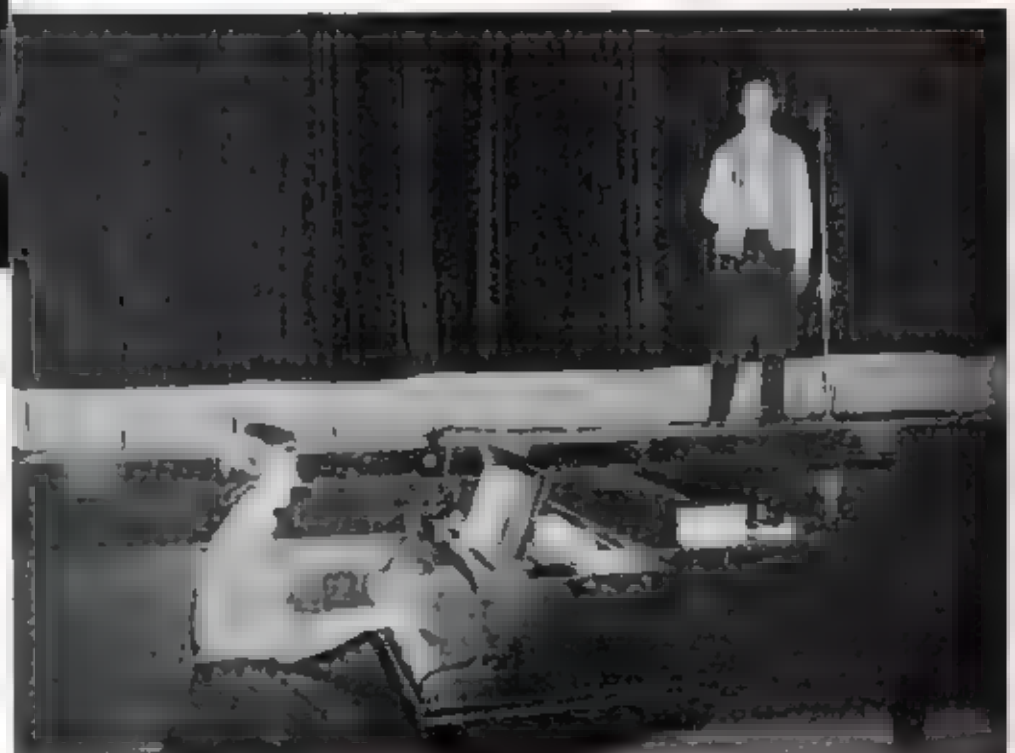

Mary Lou Pivonski ponders over the situation as Sue Seymour gets a sneak preview of Jeannie Hill's startling hand in the opening scene of the "Decision on Ramey Scott". The three act play was written and directed by Mr. Hal O. Kessler, a new teacher at L-P and adviser of the Dramatics Club.

During one of L-P's most interesting assembly programs, Baron Von Brenner, assisted by his wife, places Barbara Gates in a deep hypnotic sleep.

At the beginning of each assembly, senior chorus member Curtis Smith leads the student body in the first stanza of "America", followed by the "Pledge of Allegiance". Janice Richards, a junior member of the chorus, accompanies Curtis on the piano. An assembly at L-P never commences without this inspirational formality.

PEP CLUB MEMBERS ARE LOYAL TO ALL L-P TEAMS

The Pep Club section at basketball games unites to back the team.

Active members of the Pep Club discuss cheers and new ways to increase school spirit: (back row) Roseann Lipka, Anne Cannon, Sarah LaFlamme, Susie Baima, Judy Znaniecki, Vivi

There is a rush of Pep Club members to the upstairs concession stand at the half-time of all basketball games.

ENTHUSIASTIC CHEERLEADERS DO THEIR PART FOR VICTORY

"V" stands for victory and varsity as these girls know; they cheer for both. Varsity Cheerleaders Sandy Brovelli, Linda Harl, Marcia Woltmann, Mary Ann Werntz, and Carolee Campeggio lead the student body in cheers for the Cavaliers and sprinkle school spirit throughout the halls of L-P.

Varsity Alternate Carol Bianchi and Frosh-Soph Alternate Jackie Brady lead cheers in the absence of a regular.

Sarah LaFlamme, Edna Kimber, Mary Beth Boyle, Carol Niedzwiecki, and Mary Ann May are the frosh-soph cheerleaders who back the Incas with loud yells and much encouragement.

With this their first year cheerleading for an L-P team, the Freshman Cheerleaders: Lorraine Sikora, Sharon White, and Mary Beth Camenisch do a fine job and gain experience for possible cheering their next three years at L-P.

MUSIC GROUPS COMBINE FOR PRE-LENTEN CONCERT

The advanced choirs of L-P and L-P-O and the L-P band perform at the Annual Pre-Lenten Concert. This seasonal program has come to be an important event in the community.

Mr. Roy Johnson, who has been L-P Choral director for the past ten years, raises his baton at the Lenten Concert and the music begins.

Janice Richards, a junior in the Advanced Choir accompanies the choir during their many performances; she plays the piano and the organ.

OPERETTA "BRIGADOON" DELIGHTS LARGE AUDIENCE

In Thursday's performance Dick Kotz as Tommy Albright and Camila Rumsavich as Fiona MacLaren find that after only one day together, "It's Almost Like Being in Love."

Meg Brockie (Sue Seymour), Brigadoon's vivacious flirt, and Jeff Douglas (Glenn Glauser), America's hilarious bachelor, team up to captivate Thursday night's audience.

Here the clans of the town join the bagpipers to sing the theme song of the show, "Brigadoon".

One of the most outstanding dances in Brigadoon was the sword dance. Here Jerry Falk as Harry Beaton and Marion Dane as Jeannie MacLaren perform together as sword dancers Kenny Terando, Don Nowakowski, and Jerry McGeorge await their turn.

During Friday night's performance flirtatious Meg Brockie (Jeannie Hill) lures Jeff Douglas (Glenn Glauser) into the Brockie open shed to tell him about "The Love of My Life."

On Friday night Mr. Lundy (Curtis Smith) reveals the story of Brigadoon to Jeff Douglas (Glenn Glauser), Tommy Albright (Dick Kotz), and Fiona MacLaren (Carol Lipinski).

MAJORETTES AND DRUM MAJORS LEAD BAND.

For three years, Senior Dick Hauser has donned the drum major hat. The letters on the hat stand for La Salle, Peru, and Oglesby—the towns from which the majority of the students come.

Next football season, Junior David Priebe will step into the honored spotlight to lead the L-P Football Marching Band down the field to perform for their adult and student fans.

A football game would not be complete without the shimmering batons of majorettes Sandra Ricci, sophomore; Karen Bean, freshman; Marlene Klansek, senior; and Lee Ann Rigazio, junior.

BAND MEMBERS VISIT ST. LOUIS ON SPRING TOUR

The Band Parents' Association worked hard to finance the tour. Mrs. W. C. Liefeld and Mrs. William Peters wrap cupcakes as Mrs.

Vincent J. Dooley completes a sale. The Band Parents' Association held three such bake sales.

Having looked forward to the tour since their freshman year, seniors Linda Coulter, Beverly Beck, Emmy Peters, Kay Miller, and John Schott are a bit reluctant to leave St. Louis and a wonderful time.

On August 31, 1954, the school year began for the "Class of '58" with 352 freshmen enrolled. Students worked diligently their freshman year and attained a place on the honor roll and high scholarship legion. Ned Hurley was elected class president and led the wandering freshmen through their first year.

Buddy DiCrispino was elected president of the class in 1955—sophomores now—a little grown up. The class was still large. They learned to budget their time so play didn't interfere with work and vice-versa.

Well acquainted with high-school life, the juniors are within sight of their goal, with only one more glorious year to graduation. With Buddy DiCrispino again at the helm, the juniors sailed through the year enjoying every minute, climaxing the year with the Christmas tea and "Springtime Fantasy."

The new tomorrow has finally come for the seniors who have eagerly anticipated graduation

Gary,
 Here's loads and loads of all the luck to a wonderful and sweet boy.
 I hope baby you in a class next year Gary. And don't forget our soph.
 party.

Love in luck
 Carol
 Wentz

P.S. take it easy on all the girls, ok?

Gary: Remember our awful English class. Some of the comments flung around were pretty good though.

Good luck always,
 Buck Tyler

Gary,
 Always remember that awful 327
 Home Room. I've probably see you at this summer, now that I live down in that neck of the woods. Let me know in every thing you do and with that "certain someone"
 whoever she may be.
 Love always
 Jane

Ernie,
 Hope to see you with your out for you ball, and I hope you make the team.

Lot of Basket
 Cam Aial

Good luck to you in that class. I hope you make the team. Love always, Gary.
